

CHARLES KORNACK

GRADUATED FROM EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL IN 1967

JOINED U.S. ARMY IMMEDIATELY AFTER HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

After his discharge from the military service, Charles Kornack worked at the Midland Co-op in Athens and then in October of 1983, he and his wife started their own business, C & M Sales & Service in Athens, Wisconsin.

While in the service, Charles was a helicopter pilot in Vietnam. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross Award. He served as a helicopter instructor after his tour of duty in Vietnam until his honorable discharge from the military.

Chuck has volunteered for many activities over the years, some of which include:

Little League Coach from start of program until 2002.

Hunter safety instructor for 11 years. Teaches class at high school for those students unable to attend other classes.

Member of Athens Area Credit Union for 20 years and Chairman of the Board for the last 15 years.

Athens Fireman and EMT since the 1970's.

Building inspector from 1994-2003.

School bus driver for Dahl Bus Service for 20+ years.

Currently serves as President of the Village of Athens.

Charles Kornack is the son of Pauline and the late Arthur Kornack, Edgar. He married Marcella Fredrich in 1974 and they reside in Athens, Wisconsin. Chuck and Marcy have three children, Patrick, Sarah and Amber.