

DONALD J. TRAWICKI

GRADUATED FROM EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL IN 1949

B.B.A. - UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

M.B.A. - HARVARD GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Donald Trawicki (retired) was a partner in the Deloitte & Touche New York Office. He performed analyses of utilities' costs, rate base, rate interest coverage and revenue requirements, and testified on these issues in numerous jurisdictions; audited the internal controls of a major telephone utility and testified to the findings; audited fuel adjustment and raw materials price clauses and recommended clause design changes and monitoring procedures; conducted a prudence audit of the management of the construction and financing of a major nuclear generating station; studied competition, profitability, and industry developments in directory advertising, and testified on these issues. He has several publications and has given presentations to many professional groups.

Mr. Trawicki is a Certified Public Accountant in Wisconsin, New York, and New Jersey, and is a member of American Institute of Certified Public Accountants; is affiliated with or served on Liaison with Cost Accounting Standards Board, Task Force on Public Utilities, Institute of Management Consultants serving on Board of Regents, National Director of Management Accounting Practices Committee and Academic relations Committee.

Service in the military includes U.S. Coast Guard Lieutenant and International Ice Patrol.

Mr. Trawicki became involved in a program in New York City to provide education & jobs for young people with developmental disabilities. He assisted in finding jobs in his company and other companies where these young people could go to work on a permanent basis and caused them to become confident, self-supporting members of society, despite their handicap. He continues involvement with the fund raising Part of the organization/program.

Mr. Trawicki is the son of Delphine Trawicki, Edgar.
He and his wife, Bonnie, reside in Tuscon, Arizona and
Have five children and eight grandchildren.