

DR. RONALD KING

GRADUATED FROM EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL IN 1970

University of Wisconsin, LaCrosse - B.S. 1974

UW-LaCrosse - M.B.A, 1978

University of Arizona 1986 - Ph. D

Currently Senior Associate Dean and Myron Northrop Professor of Accounting in the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis MO

Dr. King's research addresses how legal and market institutions affect the production and use of accounting information. His principal research method is experimental economics, a methodology that allows for the controlled investigation of economic theories. In addition to presenting at Many US Universities, he has been invited to present research workshops in Australia, Canada, Israel, Japan, Taiwan, and the United Arab Emirates.

Dr. King is a member of various organizations and has done expert witness work related to financial accounting and auditing. He is associate editor or board member of various academic journals, including The Accounting Review, Auditing: A Journal of Practice and Theory and Accounting Horizons.

Awards and honors include Faculty Fellowship - 1991,
KPMG Peat Marwick Foundation Research Fellowship Award-1989,
Teacher of the Year, B.S.B.A. - 1987 & 1988

The son of Aloysius King and the late Marie King, Ron is married to Monica Matheny and they have two sons, Bracken & Tyler. He enjoys heavy metal and any kind of live music, his 1967 Volvo 122, ancient conflicts, traveling, bicycling, tennis and is known for his supportive attitude, sense of humor and family values.