

GAIL SCHNEIDER MITTELSTEDT

GRADUATED FROM EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL IN 1970

B.S. IN NURSING - UW-EAU CLAIRE

(SUMMA CUM LAUDE)

M.S. PUBLIC HEALTH - BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Gail currently teaches for Army Medical Department Center and School at Fort Sam Houston in the field of HIV prevention and health promotion. She has presented at conferences and seminars.

As a member of the U.S. Army and Army Reserves, Gail served in various roles as direct care-giver, supervisor, manager educator and entrepreneur in nursing/health care. She received the Army Achievement Medal for civilians while in Panama and has received numerous citations and medals. Through her recruiting efforts the nurses at Gorgas Army hospital were able to acquire added skill and knowledge in neonatal advanced life support, served on health promotion councils and as hoc committees which led to 300 individuals being trained in crisis intervention. She ran the first nursing licensure board review for Panamanian RN's hoping to take the U.S. licensure exam.

Gail has been active in many women's and charitable organizations as well as working with the elderly. She has worked with the League of Women Voters and is a member of the American Public Health Association.

Gail is married to an active duty U.S. Army officer and lives in San Antonio, Texas.