

JENNIFER (MILLER) LEMMER

GRADUATED FROM EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL IN 1988

NORTHCENTRAL TECHNICAL COLLEGE, WAUSAU

Jennifer Lemmer was appointed Probate Court Commissioner on January 17, 2006.

She was previously endorsed by five circuit Judges in Marathon County for the appointment of "Register in Probate for the Circuit Court of Marathon County" in July 2005.

Jennifer completed a full course of study prescribed for participants in the Wisconsin Register in Probate Educational Seminar and received her certificate on September 23, 2005.

In her position, Jennifer helps to guide individuals and attorneys through the Probate process and assist those who have lost loved ones through the process of beginning a Probate matter.

Jennifer has also held court-sponsored guardian training sessions for Marathon County. A few of the topics covered include the description of guardianship and when one is necessary, the effect a guardianship has on Power of Attorney, the difference between a Guardian of Estate and Guardian of Person and the duties and responsibilities of each, what protective placement is and when it is necessary, what expenses and/or liabilities a guardian might incur and what fees and expenses a guardian might be entitled to.

Jennifer is married to Frank Lemmer and the couple has two children - Cody and Erica.
