

MARK SCHROEDER

GRADUATED FROM EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL IN 1932

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO & UNIVERSITY OF
MICHIGAN - GRADUATE STUDIES IN METEOROLOGY

Mark served as a Fir-Weather Forecaster, U.S. Weather Bureau, Chicago Illinois for states of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio from '46-55. Served as Research Meteorologist, National Weather Service and U.S. Forest Service, Berkeley and Riverside, CA from '55-73. Authored or co-authored more than 40 published articles. Senior author of book FIRE WEATHER used in colleges in U.S. and Canada. Lead project which developed National Fire Danger Rating System now used by fire control agencies throughout the U.S.

Mark married Eva Zimmermann of Edgar (Class of 1933) in 1941.