Edgar Schools POINTS OF PRIDE

Co-Curricular Programming

At Edgar, we believe that a strong involvement in both academic and co-curricular programming encourages students to challenge themselves as they are given opportunities to question, collaborate, and lead. Students who participate in co-curricular activities are more likely to be engaged in school and less likely of school failure and dropping out.

Edgar Schools offer 11 High School and 8 Middle School clubs and activities ranging from Art Club to Ski Club to Student Council.

Edgar High & Middle Schools each offer 9 athletic programs for students to learn important values including teamwork and collaboration.

of both High and Middle School students participate in one or more activities in school.

Summer School Success

This year, 74% of Edgar students (a total of 443) attended summer school classes designed to enrich and extend their learning, with 30+ courses offered.

Committed to Student Success

We provide diverse opportunities for our students to excel. Our students are leaders, prepared for college and career opportunities.

Dedicated & Professional Staff

Our staff go above and beyond through coaching, mentoring, and running community events -- modeling strong values and teamwork for our students.

Safe & Respectful Facilities

Our facilities are more than just classrooms -- they include a School Forest, an auditorium, and welcoming spaces used by both students and the community.

Financially Responsible & Future-Focused

Our finances are managed responsibly, ensuring resources are focused on creating the best educational experience for our students.

High standards, dedication, & shared values make Edgar a place where students, staff, & community thrive together!

Respectful, Responsible and Ready To Succeed!
