School Board members heard Administrative Reports:

District Administrator: Cari Guden reported on her participation in several June meetings and provided updates on the following:

- The year-end Food Service Lunch and Breakfast Count was presented. 44,003 breakfasts were served during the 2021-22 school year; 80,474 lunches were served.
- Cari reported that the Fiscal Audit took place July 5-8. The Nov-January report has been received from the auditor. The auditor will present findings of the full audit at an upcoming meeting.
- District student registration will take place August 1-12 online, and in person August 15-18
- The 7th annual Continuous Improvement Program (CIP) District Data Retreat/Dig will be August 10-11. We are partnering with CESA 9 the first day.
- Marathon County Special Education (MCSE) June Board meeting highlights included hiring of paraeducator Patricia Schwarts, ID teacher Ashley Blenker, and the resignation of David Wright as a paraeducator.
- Cari presented the 2021-22 Bridging Brighter Smiles Report: 17 Edgar School District students were served overall. 29 screenings and cleanings were completed; 40 fluoride varnishes and 19 tooth sealing were completed through the program.
- Cari shared thank you notes from Kristin Bornbach and Shirley Bargender

Lisa Witt submitted a report that included:

- The last day of Summer School was July 14. 469 students attended Summer School this year.
- MCSE Summer Academy Week was July 18-22. Participants gained professional development during the week.
- Fill A Backpack; Fill A Need Order Pick-up will be July 27

- Curriculum Mapping Week will be August 1-5. The focus will be K-12 Science and Social studies. Special education teachers will be working with Garrett Lancel to develop social skills curriculum.
- Illustrative Math Onboarding Training for grade K-2 will be held August 8-9
- New Teacher Orientation will be August 22-23
- Staff in service dates are August 24-25 and August 30-31
- New this year, a K-12 Open House will be held August 30, 2:30-6 p.m. Previously, open houses had been only held for Elementary students. We want to bring more parents in as students move to higher grade levels.

Tom McCarty's report included:

- Wildcat Days for 6th graders and Student Orientation for 9th graders will be held August 17, 8 a.m.-3 p.m.
- Continuous Improvement Planning and New Teacher Inservice will be held in August.
