

KAREN (JOHNSON) PAUL

GRADUATED FROM EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL IN 1967

THE VOICE & HEARTBEAT OF EDGAR HIGH SCHOOL

Karen Paul has probably done more for students and parents at Edgar H.S. than any other single person in the past 40+ years.

She is dedicated, kind, considerate, caring and very loyal to Edgar Public Schools. Her is the only voice many people hear when connecting our school and they frequently comment that she is the most pleasant and helpful person they have ever spoken with at any high school anywhere.

Karen started her career at the Edgar Schools as an aide in the Elementary School and then worked as the Middle School secretary before returning to the Elementary Office as secretary for several years. She was then transferred to the High School office.

Karen serves the school, community of Edgar and St. John's Catholic Church in many capacities.

Karen is the daughter of Valeria (and the late Donald) Johnson of Edgar. She & her husband Dale have raised three tremendous children- Hather, Forrest and Zachary. They have a son-in-law Chad, two daughters-in law Kylee and Shanna, and five grandchildren Carver, Ava, Cale, Kellen, and Cassius. Another grandson is due in November, 2011.
